The Mustang celebrated its 40th anniversary on April 17, 2004. Before the car was first released in 1964, few would have anticipated it staying in production this long. The Mustang was an instant success, however, reaching its yearly sales goal of 100,000 units in just three months. Despite these strong beginnings, there were times when the original pony car's future was in jeopardy, and it looked as if the Mustang would go the same way as the Camaro and Challenger before it.
