Clemente - The Passion and Grace of Baseball's Last Hero "Maraniss brings imagination, energy, and even poetry to his superb biography of one of the greatest ballplayers ever to delight a stadium full of fans." Something That Never Ends

Clemente - David Maraniss

Maraniss' new biography of Clemente, (the first since shortly after he died) captures the many facets of this complex man who truly did live his life both on and off the diamond with passion and grace. Where the earlier Clemente biographies, written shortly after his death, were little more than tributes and eulogies for the fallen hero, Maraniss writes of the man in all his complexity, and though he deservedly calls him a hero, he does not treat him as a saint.
