Close Enough To Touch Jackson

Amanda's review posted on Guilty Pleasures Victoria Dahl's Close Enough to Touch is a great beginning to her new Jackson Hole series for it's an emotional and earnest novel. This story is a little edgier with angst from both main characters but that is what drew me in and held me until I finished with one big happy smile.

Their struggles to adapt to the loss of not only Aja's parents but the breakdown of Eric's marriage and his struggles to reconnect with his teenage daughter are poignant and genuinely funny in places. Close Enough To Touch is a decent enough book but schmaltzy in places and only really spoilt by what I perceived to be an early plot hole.
