Embassytown - Wikipedia

Embassytown is a remote outpost deep in space. Mankind has established a tenuous relationship with the local aliens: a remarkable species that speaks an at once simple and remarkably profound language that is completely without the ability to refer to anything other than what actually is. I thoroughly enjoyed this novel.

One moment of cack-handedness, Captain Cook offends the bloody locals, one slip of the tongue or misuse of sacred cutlery, and bang, he's on the grill. Do you ever think about how self-aggrandising that stuff is?
