Upon death and succession, inheritance tax is payable to the National Tax Agency within 10 months in order to avoid penalties. Late payment or miscalculation of payment can involve a penalty of up to 20% of the unpaid amount of tax, as well as a potential flat penalty of up to 500,000 JPY per infraction, plus interest depending on how late you pay the penalty. Further, if the tax office determines that there was any malfeasance involved in the mis-payment or failure to declare, the statute ...
