Anna was awkward as all get out and Nick was self-confidence personified and somehow they worked. The overall focus was on Nick's package and I'm glad the author didn't deviate much from that. While this story wasn't moving or thought-provoking, it was a win for me due to its simplicity. Release Date: December 13, 2017

Book one in the awkward love series and I have read these books out of order so this is the third one of these books and my least favourite so far. I did enjoy Anna and Nick's story although Nick was nowhere near alpha enough for me considering the genre of this story - best friends daughter, older man.
