This week's words (Vocabulary 12) arrive to my students via a few different sources. The first five are compliments of Of Mice and Men (pugnacious, ominous, flounce, plaintive, brusque), motif was encountered in the notes on archetypes, and the final four are contributions of my class of students that thrives on vocabulary the most. These are the students who arrive to class on a Friday, read the agenda on the white board, and proclaim "Yay!"
