A biography of Hugh Hefner is not complete without delving into the Playboy Mansion, the rotating round bed and the infamous grotto ...I understand that. A biography of Hugh Hefner is not complete without looking at Mr. Hefner's personal sexual philosophy ... I get that too. This book offers just a little too much of all that. Titillating?

Mr. Playboy: Hugh Hefner and the American Dream by Steven ...

As he did in his previous books on Henry Ford (The People's Tycoon) and Walt Disney (The Magic Kingdom), Watts carefully details the life of Hugh Hefner and the influence his Playboy magazine has had on American culture. Using unrestricted access to the magazine's archives, Watts skillfully charts the intersection of Hefner's professional and personal history: the sexual titillation of his first issue; his mid- to late-1960s championing of leftist politics and writers such as Norman Mailer ...
