His teams won seven league championships in a professional ...

Paul Brown - Wikipedia

"The Rise and Function of the Holy Man in Late Antiquity" (1971) His most celebrated early paper concerned the figure of the 'holy man'. According to Brown, the charismatic, Christian ascetics (holy men) were particularly prominent in the late Roman empire and the early Byzantine world as mediators between local communities and the divine. This relationship expressed the importance of patronage in the Roman social system, which was taken over by the Christian ascetics.
