I wasn't Woods's simple perfection. He would find it one day with someone else. Maybe one day I would find a way to be happy again. Maybe living life would help me find my place. I refused to believe I would end up damaged like my mother. I might not have been wife-and-mother material, but I was a person. I could be something.

Simple Perfection Page 20. Della The pizza hadn't even arrived yet when Tripp walked back in the door. I had been sure he was going to screw a stranger. "You're back?" He shrugged. "I decided I'd rather have pizza instead of a beer." Something was up. He wouldn't rather have had pizza than get laid. Tripp was a bit of a man-whore.
